Chester's Back!

By Melanie Watt

Kids Can Press, $18.95, 32 pages

This is one of the most brilliant children's books I have come across! Chester, a large orange cat armed with his red marker, takes over as a "co-author" of sorts as he tries to write his own story and draw his own pictures. As the owner of a large orange cat myself, I understand just how much they love the spotlight, and Chester is no different. Between being a magician, caveman, and sheriff, Chester is never lacking imagination. Watt's writing style is innovative and interactive. The drawings are adorable. Parents and kids will equally enjoy this book. Your child's library would be incomplete without this book, it is definitely a must have!
