

Sacramento Book Review

Below is a clipping of your book review that appeared in the January 09 issue of the Sacramento Book Review. Thank you for sending us the book.

Chicken and Cat Clean Up

By Sara Varon

Scholastic Press, $16.99, 44 pages

Chicken and Cat are your typical odd couple. They are opposites in many ways, except for their commitment to their friendship. Chicken is very organized and punctual, and Cat lives life by his own clock. This fun-loving picture book emphasizes that different isn't always bad. That is an important lesson all children should be taught at an early age. Chicken and Cat each have special qualities that make them a value to each other. Picture books are a great way to get kids not yet able to read interested in the ability to read. And, since there aren't any words printed, the story can be something new each time.

Reviewed by Jennifer LeBrun