

Sacramento Book Review

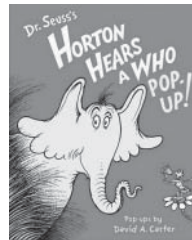

Below is a clipping of your book review that appeared in the January 09 issue of the Sacramento Book Review. Thank you for sending us the book.

Dr. Seuss's Horton Hears a Who Pop-Up

By Pop-ups By David A. Carter
Robin Corey Books (Random House),
$25.99, 22 pages

Horton and the Whos leap from the page is this pop-up edition of Dr. Seuss's classic Horton Hears a Who. Horton hears a voice from a tiny dust speck and discovers a whole population of creatures too small for most to see. Determined to see them treated with respect, Horton embarks on an adventure to bring the Whos into the world he knows.

Pop-up artist David A. Carter (Bugs in a Box and Red Dot series), remains true to the original text and illustrations when adding a third dimension of movement and kinetic energy to the story. Combinations of lift flaps (hiding even more pop-ups), pull tabs and strings, wheels and five complicated two-page paper structures leap from the page to fascinate and engage readers.

Hardcover binding and sturdy pages and cutouts mean the book will stand up to hours of use. With full color and detailed illustrations enhanced by marvels of paper engineering, children and adults alike will discover new things every time they look at a page.

See interview with author, David Carter, on page 31.

Reviewed by Jamie Engle